Presidents Report

To all members, I recently received a letter addressed to me dated 21/6/06 which I will share this with you.

Dear Mr. Smart,

This is Doris Greenwood writing to you, as President of an Association of which I am ashamed to be a member. I am the proud widow of Harold Greenwood, who has supported your newsletter financially since he retired as a Customs Officer after more than thirty years service.

To dismiss his death in two and a half lines in your publication is nothing short of an insult to him, and me and my family, and I am totally disgusted. I dare you to publish this in your next issue - a copy of which I would ask you to send to me. After that, please take me off your mailing list.

P.S. Thank you for your sensitivity in addressing the issue (reporting his death) to H. J. & D. E. Greenwood says it all, doesn't it.

Yours, Doris Greenwood

In our June issue we had put 'Vale Harry Greenwood recently passed away on June 1st. His funeral was held at Fremantle Cemetery Tuesday June 6th

Dear Mrs Greenwood.

In answer to your letter which was written 20 days after the death of our friend Harry.

We as ex Customs Officers worked closely together and were in many ways a family type organization and many of us worked for the Customs Service for periods in excess of 30 years and I personally worked for 27 years after being a service man for my country. The Officers who did their duties did incredible tasks under sometime terrible and dangerous conditions that were never shirked whether in the city or in other places within Australian or it could also be on a world stage. We remember them all, our friends and our activities, but we rarely talked about the dangers.

Each member that you know in our Association needs a book written about him or her and the activities they undertook but this Association is about the living and in our newsletter we report the passing of members to our living members so that they know that they have lost another of their friends and can remember him or her in private. If you think we have not done enough in reporting the loss of your husband I apologize to you personally, however, we are all waiting for what is going to happen to each and everyone of shortly without exception and not too many people like to be reminded of this so we very rarely dwell on these matters in our newsletter to any length.

Trevor Smart

As you can all see we have printed this as requested!

News of Members

Mimie Murray-Smith has been in touch with us, she sincerely thanked us for publishing the article the NT officers wrote on Bruce. They were men who were members of Bruce's staff & he always spoke well of his loyal people when he was in charge of outports from Geraldton, Port Hedland, Broome & then Darwin, always a happy office. Thank you Mimie.

Gwen Gregg is out of sorts at the moment, we wish her well & hope to see her back on track again soon.

Maree & Brian Lowe wrote in with their subs saying they had recently put a deposit on a 40' Fontaine Pajot catamaran & are travelling to La Rochelle in France for a week to visit the factory & see it being constructed. Unfortunately, they were going to take delivery in November but have had to delay it due a pen not being available.

Harry Wills is not well & is taking things day by day. We are sorry to hear this Harry, our thoughts are with you & Pat

Once again, we do know of members who are/have been unwell but respect their request for privacy.

We wish you all a speedy recovery & good health.

Wildflower Trip Reminder

As mentioned in past newsletters, some members are planning to stay at the Seaspray Caravan Park, Dongara from Monday 11 September to Thursday 14 September. They are taking their own caravans whilst others can book Chalets. During the day they plan to visit the local sites including wildflowers, towns, craft shops etc. If you wish to join them you are most welcome, however although there are vacancies at the moment it is suggested you book your accommodation quickly as September is the wildflower season. Of course you are at liberty to stay elsewhere and for as long as you wish. Those going so far that we know of are Roz & Warrick Gates, Trevor Smart & his friend Bob Quinn. Details of the caravan park were in the April issue of the newsletter.

Recent Outings

Lunch at Runway Bar & Café was attended by 26 of our members & once again the food was excellent. There was no shortage at all, especially for those with a sweet tooth who had more than one helping of dessert. For those who were unable to make it you missed out on a great lunch, we hope to see you soon. The door prize was won by Sylvia Shaw who took home a bottle of wine.

Dad's Army Recruitment

(Customs Needs You Back)

Customs are looking at employing more ex Customs Officers on a casual or part-time basis shortly. The jobs will include 'Marshalling', 'Outwards Primary' & TRS (Tax Refund Scheme).

The 'Marshal' job involves standing in one place for a few hours at a time, so you need to be reasonably fit as this can be quite tiring especially to the back of the legs.

If you are interested in filling one of these potential positions please contact Tony Thompson, in Human Resources, ring Customs on 9430 1647 & ask for him or email him tony.thompson@customs.gov.au

Brain Exercises

1. How can a woman living in New Jersey, legally marry 3 men, without ever getting a divorce, be widowed, or becoming legally separated?
2. If there are 5 apples on the counter and you take away 2, how many do you have?
3. If, having only one match, on a freezing winter day, you entered a room which contained a lamp, a kerosene heater, and a wood burning stove, which should you light first.
4. Johnny's mother had three children. The first child was named April. The second child was named May. What was the third child's name?
5. Why are 1898 silver dollars worth more than 1897 silver dollars?
6. How many birth days does the average man have?
7. Why can't you take a photo of an Indian woman with hair curlers?
8. Someone at a party introduces you to your mother's only sister's husband's sister in law. He has no brothers. What do you call this lady?

Trivia

In the 1400's a law was set forth that a man was not allowed to beat his wife with a stick any thicker than his thumb. Hence we have 'the rule of thumb'.

Many years ago in Scotland, a new game was invented. It was ruled 'Gentlemen Only ... Ladies Forbidden' and thus the word GOLF entered into the English language.

The first couple to be shown in bed together on prime time TV were Fred & Wilma Flintstone

Every day more money is printed for Monopoly than the US Treasury.

Men can read smaller print than women can; women can hear better.

Coca-Cola was originally green.

It is impossible to lick your elbow.

The average number of people airborne over the US any given hour: 61,000

Intelligent people have more zinc and copper in their hair.

The first novel ever written on a typewriter: Tom Sawyer.

Each king in a deck of playing cards represents a great king from history: Spades - King David, Hearts - Charlemagne, Clubs - Alexander, the Great & Diamonds - Julius Caesar

$111,111,111 \times 111,111,111 = 12,345,678,987,654,321$

If a statue in the park of a person on a horse has both front legs in the air, the person died in battle. If the horse has one front leg in the air the person died as a result of wounds received in battle. If the horse has all four legs on the ground, the person died of natural causes.

In Shakespeare's time, mattresses were secured on bed frames by ropes. When you pulled on the ropes the mattress tightened, making the bed firmer to sleep on. Hence the phrase: "Goodnight, sleep tight."

It was the accepted practice in Babylon 4,000 years ago that for a month after the wedding, the bride's father would supply his son-in-law with all the mead he could drink. Mead is a honey beer and because their calendar was lunar based; this period was called the honey month, which we know today as the honeymoon.

In English pubs, ale was traditionally ordered by pints and quarts. Therefore, in old England, when customers got unruly, the bartender would yell at them "Mind your pints and quarts, and settle down." It's where we get the phrase 'mind your P's and Q's'

Many years ago in England, pub frequenters had a whistle baked into the rim, or handle, of their ceramic cups. When they needed a refill, they used the whistle to get some service. 'Wet your whistle' is the phrase inspired by this practice.

Q. If you were to spell out numbers, how far would you have to go until you would find the letter 'A'?

A. One thousand

Q. What do bullet-proof vests, fire escapes, windshield wipers, and laser printers all have in common?

A. All invented by women.

Q. What is the only food that doesn't spoil?

A. Honey

~~AND FINALLY~~ At least 75% of people who read this will try to lick their elbow!

Mystery Word

Each of the words on the right contains a hidden four-letter word. You do not need to rearrange any letters. Find the hidden words & write them in the grid. The coloured squares will spell our winning word. What is it?

Buccaneer
Insolence
Monitored
Asparagus
Alphabetise
Bachelor
Aftermath

The answer to each clue is a nine-letter word. Each answer can be made up by using three of the three-letter groups in the grid. The three remaining groups of letters can be rearranged to spell the name of a figure from history. Who is it?

Clues

- Hedgehog like animal
- English city where the Beatles grew up
- Dummy
- Greenish-blue mineral
- Musical wind instrument

Last but not Least

- ◆ This is the second last issue of 'Duty Freed for 2006 so if you have any news for us all please get it to us before October when we write our final newsletter for the year.
- ◆ Customs Needs You - well, only if you want to - see Dad's Army / Customs Reserve - Page 3
- ◆ RCOA needs you too - we have very little in the way of stories to print about RCOA members and what they get up to. Most of what you read in 'Duty Freed' has been put together by Hazel. We are meant to be the editors, i.e. you the members, send articles to us and we have to edit them to make them fit into a limited space. Sounds good, but we spend most of our time 'filling in the spaces' so put pen to paper, or fingers to the keyboard, let's hear from you! Thanks to those of you who do send in printable articles.
