Annual General Meeting - Tuesday February 3rd 2015

We do hope you can be there as a good turn up to this function especially, is one sure way the committee can know that their efforts each year are appreciated. It is also the opportunity to have your say in how your association is run and to take part in the election of committee appointments, as well as catching up with old friends.

Of course, if any of you can spare some time to be a member of the committee then the AGM is the time and place to put your hand up.

We are always looking for new faces to join us, so please get your nominations in to fill the positions. See you there!

Minutes of Annual General Meeting held at the Swan Yacht Club, East Fremantle on Tuesday February 4th 2014

Vice-President Richard Coleman declared the meeting open at 11:40 am and welcomed those attending. Members present as per signed list circulated at the meeting.

Apologies – Jim & Norma Anderson, Ron Dyer, Jan Hall, Ian Jamieson, Karen Jardine, Ron & Judy King, Bev & Percy Perrin, Les Preedy, Harry Tazewell

Minutes of previous AGM were circulated in the 'Duty Freed' for all members to read, and were accepted as read.

Accepted by all in attendance

Treasurer's Report – was circulated in the 'Duty Freed' for all members to read. Bernie outlined an error that was recorded in the Duty Freed which since the accounts have been audited has been corrected. Bob Stone proposed that this now be accepted as a true record, seconded Warrick Gates.

Accepted by all in attendance

Entertainment Report – Hazel outlined the functions that were held & numbers attending. Due to weather, illness or happy travellers there were few functions in 2013 but we hope to have a better year in 2014

AGM 2013 - 29 attended the meeting & lunch at Swan Yacht Club.

Feb – 10 had breakfast at Swan Yacht Club

Dec – 18 in total celebrated a Christmas lunch at the Iris Bar & Restaurant, the sit down lunch was again very enjoyable and will look to book this venue again for Christmas 2014.

President's Report – New is the year, new are our hopes. Welcome to the year 2014.

Since our last AGM our function program was limited by opportunity and attendance. In part I must accept some of the blame, as do some of our committee, as all but Hazel & Richard at some time or other were tripping off somewhere. Myself and Judy caravanned to the eastern states to attend the Probus Rendezvous at Albury/Wodonga and glad we did for it was very well organised and presented. I mention this because on our way home via Canberra we caught up with, ex Customs, Graham Cruttenden and his partner Ruth and a very old friend, and old he is (91), Ian Foster. Fit and well.

As with all committees and Associations they do not exist and or/survive without personal support and such is the case with your Committee to which special mention must be made to Hazel & Bernie. To all you members who support our functions I thank you sincerely. To the members in general I too say thanks to you for maintaining your interest in this unique Club/Association.

Regrettably some members are no longer with us and please allow me to make special mention of Alex Shaw to which this Association is very much indebted. This was the man who literally hand produced our Newsletters, now, Duty Freed. My apologies for not being in your company today but nature, age and a surgeon have restricted my movements for the next few weeks. God willing and the creeks don't flood I will be a regular attendee at all future committee meetings and social functions. Again in all sincerity, thank you on behalf of the committee for your continued support.

Ron King

Darrell Johnson – took the chair and proceeded with the election of office bearers for the next year.

Only one nomination was received per position and were elected unopposed as below.

President	Ron King	Committee:	Warrick Gates, Neil Hopkins, Karen Jardine, Kay Schmidt,
Vice President	Richard Coleman		Trevor Smart, Bob Stone
Secretary	Hazel Webb
Treasurer	Bernie Webb
Duty Freed Editor	Hazel Webb

General Business—Bernie advised the website was temporarily down however it should be fixed very soon, apologies to those who may have tried to access it.

Hazel advised that due to staff changes at Customs we had no guest speaker this year but will follow up for 2015 AGM

With no further business Richard thanked everyone for attending and closed the meeting at 12:00 noon

The next Annual General Meeting will be Tuesday February 3rd 2015 at the Swan Yacht Club.

News of Members

John & Sue Marks have left WA and settled in to their new home in the Nelson Bay/Port Stephens are, about a 1 hour drive north of Newcastle, NSW - lots of golf and fishing!

Margaret Heavy has been in touch and is having a fantastic time touring our country. She has raced floods, escaped fires and clearly adventuring around the East coast of Australia. She is currently in Queensland. Margaret, if you read this can you resend me your contact details as I threw my puzzle book away that I wrote them on—sorry.

Hi Everyone, Looking for a short break or maybe like to experience a cruise without leaving Australian shores? Well I have just the thing for you. Recently Alex and I enjoyed a 5 day cruise from Fremantle to Esperance and return in 5 star luxury. No passport required, no going through Customs just hop on the ship and forget your worries for 5 whole days!!!

The ship was the Astor which comes from Europe during our summer to do short cruises from Fremantle for either a couple of days out into the Indian Ocean to 5 days to Esperance round trip. Although it's not a large cruise liner like the Queen Mary 2 it's a lovely way to have some time out and be spoilt. The crew were terrific, the cabins were comfortable with everything done for you and the food was excellent with a choice of either helping yourself or being waited on. After dinner each night there was a cabaret show which was very professional and wonderful to watch. On the third night out it was the Captain's Cocktail party, everyone dressed up for the occasion and enjoyed cocktails before we were introduced to the senior crew members and the Captain sang - that's right sang - a very personable man who enjoyed mixing with the passengers and at any opportunity would grab the microphone and sing.

It was a blissful break from Perth's heatwave and a chance to recharge the batteries. There lots of activities on board if you wanted to get involved or you could just relax walk around the decks, read a book or sleep whatever took your fancy. You could also have a massage, swim in one of two pools, play chess on a large board set up on deck or sit around drink coffee, tea or alcohol - it was always that time of the day somewhere in the world!!

We didn't go ashore in Esperance it required boarding a tender boat and Alex isn't too mobile these days so we relaxed and enjoyed all the ship had to offer for the day. In Albany shuttle buses were provided for everyone to go into town and of course there's a wharf. We had a lone piper pipe us into our berth which was terrific then off into Albany for morning tea with our group before exploring. Managed to do a little shopping then back to the ship for lunch - didn't see the point paying in Albany when everything was provided on board.

All in all a wonderful way to spend 5 days and we're thinking of doing it again next year. The company is actually putting on 2 more ships in 2015 because the demand is so high. So come on everyone get yourselves into gear and start thinking about a break from Perth's heat next summer and enjoy some 5 star luxury. See you on board.

Holiday Planning 101

It's that time of year again when airlines look at their forward bookings. If they aren't happy with what they see, they will put on an airfares sale to try to encourage a few more bums on seats. And this is the time when smart travellers get ready to pounce. Here are a few hints and tips I hope you will find useful.

Airfare Comparison Websites

Getting confused with which airline to use and what the costs are? There are websites to help you decide by telling you what airfares are on offer to a particular destination and at what price.

<http://www.wego.com.au/flights> was probably the first of these, it started off doing hotel rate comparisons before branching out into airfares. Does Singles and Returns only, no multistops, but can sometimes find fares that the others don't. A further limitation is that it defaults to Economy Class only. Should you wish to check Business Class and/or First Class fares this can easily be overcome by accessing Wego via a referral site www.hoteltraveleasy.com/flights (no extra fees are involved).

<http://www.fly.com> The UK subsidiary of an American parent, Travelzoo. Allows you to select which currency you wish to work with (a lot of the US sites don't seem able or willing to!). Also does hotel rate comparisons and, importantly, allows you to construct multipoint/stopover/open jaw itineraries when you need to build a trip that is a bit more complex than a simple return. (Open jaw is where you land at one airport but return from a different one e.g. fly to Paris, use trains, buses, hire cars etc. and fly home from Rome)

<http://www.flightplanet.com.au> Probably the new kid on the block as far as fare comparisons are concerned, but it is a local Perth company. Also does holidays, hotels and cruises through sister companies. Seems to be pretty comprehensive although their search engine could use a little more refinement (e.g. it insists on using an Australian port as the point of origin for all trips).

I know there are others out there such as Expedia, Zuji, Helloworld, Travel.com, but the above three are the ones I have found most useful. I always search on all three – there are often different results from each of them for the same flight. An interesting bonus with Expedia is that if you make a dummy booking (i.e. pretend to make a booking but stop when you get to the payment page) they will show a plan of the aircraft indicating which seats are still available.

Business Class Special to Europe – This is a Ripper!

How about Business Class to Europe for under A$3000? No kidding! I have come across a Business Class Special to Europe, available at present for a fare that is as cheap as Premium Economy with other airlines. Premium Economy is only marginally more comfortable with many airlines and of course you don't get lie-flat beds, lounge access to refresh yourself with a shower, a drink and a snack, nor additional baggage, priority handling or any of the other little perks that go with Business Class. You'll fly Business Class to Europe (London, Paris, Frankfurt or Rome and return) via Colombo using an amazingly cheap (around A$2400) fare with Sri Lankan Airlines. You will need to add a fare to get yourself to and from Singapore. See <http://www.flightplanet.com.au/airfare/ULSriLankanAirlinesMIXED>. You don't actually need to go with Singapore Airlines, go with Scoot or one of the others if you wish, but watch your baggage allowance. All this for under A$3000 return per person!

Sri Lankan may not be the highest rated airline in the world, but bizzo class is bizzo class, at least you can stretch out and get horizontal for a while. And if they serve a curry for lunch you won't hear me complaining! http://www.srilankan.com/images/homeoffer/main_img_3.jpg

Stopover in Colombo is permitted in either direction. If you want to play around with dates, times and prices, it's best to do so on Sri Lankan's own website http://www.srilankan.com/en_uk/au since some of the other booking engines don't show this fare. Don't forget to show Singapore as the Departure and Final Destination airport. My experiments also suggest that you can fly into Europe to any of the four nominated airports (London, Paris, Frankfurt and Rome) and fly out from another of the four for the same special fare. You should click on the 'Multi City Itinerary' link to explore this option. There is a booking deadline of 31 January on this one so if you are interested it might pay to act soon.

Hire Car Prices

At my suggestion a friend recently saved himself about A$450 by getting a car hire quote from AutoEurope <http://www.autoeurope.com/> for his planned month in France. Autoeurope works similarly to the hotel room consolidators by pre-buying large numbers of rentals from the major car hire companies at deeply discounted rates and in turn selling them on to travellers at attractive prices.

Their rates cover an impressive list of countries including Australia, as do a similar company called www.rentalcars.com. Get a quote from both of them next time you need a car and compare – you might be very pleasantly surprised!

More over the page

Hotel Room Rates

I have been using an Australian company for a number of years, www.HotelTravelEasy.com. I stumbled across them some time ago and their rates can seldom be beaten. They are very competitive and easy to talk to, with rates that consistently are lower than www.Booking.com. If you find a lower rate elsewhere, let them know and see what they can do for you. Join their Gold Club (yours for the asking) and watch a further 10% come off what you thought was already a good price.

Correction – 28 Degree Card

In a previous article in “Duty Freed” I drew attention to the benefits of using a 28 Degree card while travelling. Sadly the company has recently introduced a “Cash Advance Fee” of 3%, or $4, whichever is higher. This includes cash withdrawals from an overseas ATM. I’m not sure why withdrawing your own money constitutes a “cash advance” but apparently that is how it is treated. Although this means the 28 Degree card is less a bargain than it once was, on balance I think it is still the best way to handle your overseas cash requirements.

Disclaimer - No, I’m not affiliated with any of the above except as a satisfied customer and as such I’m happy to recommend them to help you make your pension stretch a little further.

And Finally - If you come across any travel-related info that you think is worth passing on, please feel free to share it. ATB Jim Baird

Emergency Contact details

With a lot of us not getting any younger and some gadding about the countryside enjoying their freedom we are looking to set up a contact register so we can contact somebody if there was a need to. We don’t want to pry into your private lives but if you are willing to provide a couple of names and contact numbers for our records it would be appreciated. This information will be held by the Secretary and kept confidential and only used in emergencies.

Who Are You?

Some of you have been members of the association for a long time and unfortunately not able to join us on outings or events. We are interested in setting up a file with photos of you all and if possible a little bit about yourself. Please email us a recent photo so we know what you look like and a short précis about you. Those of you who are more active we would like the same from you too please, yes we would like everyone to go into the history pages of RCOA.

We need your help!

Many of you appear to be having trips around Australia, overseas or just down the road and may come across some exceptional places. We would like to hear about them along with any highlights of your trip. Please email your experiences to the Secretary so they can be shown in the Duty Freed. Pictures are not always easy to insert but we will try

Also as you can see we do not have a gossip column so if you have any news of members please let us know. Unfortunately the only news we seem to get is when one of our members has passed away and advise our members by email due to the timeframe.

Next issue we have an article from Mark Skeels about some of his 4-wheel adventure/s

Can You Help?

Hi all, thanks to info from our latest member (Geoff Calkin) I have added to new items to the ‘Turning 60’ document (discounts for those with a Seniors Card).

Grand Cinemas – Silver Screen Membership

Foxtel – Seniors package

See www.rcoa.org.au for more details. Anyone knowing of any other benefit of having a Seniors Card (not already mentioned) please advise and I will add it to ‘Turning 60’.

Last but not Least

- As you would have seen we have included the minutes of 2014 AGM in this newsletter for all to read (again). This will save time at the 2015 AGM and the Secretary from reading it out for all to hear. If there are no amendments they will be accepted as is and we can then move on.
- We have also included the financial report for 2014 which will be presented at AGM
- Having survived the 'Silly Season' we are now in to a 'New Year' which also means annual subscriptions are due again. Please check the mailing label at the bottom of this page to see your current financial status or if you receive 'Duty Freed' via email you would have had an email sent to you if you are not financial. If unsure please ask.
- Don't forget, that if you choose, you can pay electronically via the internet or any branch of Bendigo Bank. Please ensure your name is on the transaction for us to identify payment. Paying for more than one year at a time will delay the hassle of paying next time.
